At home outside.

Do you know a place where dreams and reality blend into one? Where you don't exactly know – when your eyes are only slightly opened – whether you're on the beach or still in the city? That's exactly where the new outdoor collection Rolf Benz YOKO is at home: somewhere else. At home.

You can now enjoy the unique feeling of being outside with the legendary seating comfort of ROLF BENZ. A warm Mediterranean breeze suddenly sweeps over the terrace and you can hear the waves through the rustling of leaves in the garden as the sun beats down. It's no coincidence that we named our first outdoor collection after the Japanese word for sun.

The outdoor collection Rolf Benz YOKO is focussed around an outdoor sofa range that was designed to be highly functional. Rolf Benz YOKO blends in with its natural surroundings and can easily be arranged into corner sofas, recamières, sunbathing areas or face-to-face situations.

Top priority: Maximum flexibility.

The sun lounger Rolf Benz YOKO combines the art of recreation with the highest level of flexibility. An integrated gas lift spring ensures stepless adjustability. With the Rolf Benz 261 and 262 coffee and side tables and the Rolf Benz 240 pouf, you can complete your outdoor living space in your own personal style.

Naturally relaxed.

With the Rolf Benz YOKO armchair, you can put your feet up and forget about the world. This outdoor armchair has found its place, either as a standalone item, in a group of armchairs or with the sofa from the collection by its side. Its light aluminium frame makes it easy to move around and with its hand-crafted weaving detail, it stylishly blends in with any surroundings.

The elegant Rolf Benz YOKO table in three different dimensions provides space for company and is a sight for sore eyes outside, whichever combination of materials you choose. For the insertion leaf you can choose between teak and three different ceramic surfaces which contrast beautifully with the aluminium frame. The chairs in the collection with their unique, hand-crafted weave detail complete the arrangement for an evening with friends, or a home office with a gentle breeze.
